I took their 4 week intensive summer course, and gained invaluable knowledge of the industry. It made me more confident, and helped me consistently book jobs since taking the courses! Plus, I got to work with top professionals in the business and spend quality time with agents and casting directors. That alone is worth the experience! I moved to LA to be apart of TVI and with in 6 months because of TVI I landed on 3 different Soap operas with speaking roles and a starring role in a short film with some great B list talent. Tvi helped me understand the business side of LA and I say everyone needs to get involved. It's worth every penny.

TVI Actors Studio is amazing and launches careers. One of my first breaks was from Mark Teschner when I was cast on General Hospital in a couple of different roles. TVI Actors Studio is very knowledgeable about the industry and supportive of actors careers! They are professional and help you become the working actor you want to be. Check them out today.

Thank you Alan from TVI Actors Studio for providing a creative space for us actors to keep evolving and growing as actors and people. Such an incredible experience as an actor to have been a part of this past weekends Quadrant 4 classes with caring, talented, mega Casting Directors who are rooting for us actors because they are passionate about their craft to help us shine as bright as we can when we step into an audition space and to super shine when on set to give our all in the realest form. I am so beyond grateful and humbled by the gem that was given to us this weekend by CD/ Mark Teschner, CD/ Paul Ruddy, CD/ M'saada Nia, CD/ Vicki Goggin. They gave us their all and gave us so much that'll last me a lifetime. These Casting Directors are giving their all and you can feel the exhilarating energy. This is a must CLASS AND STUDIO TO BE A PART OF.

There are many acting classes and workshops offered in Los Angeles but the TVI Actors Studio is best suited for actors who truly desire to nurture their craft in acting. This performing arts school is one of a kind providing workshops since 1986. Alan the founder, is hospitable, caring and a wonderful support for actors. The Casting Quadrant workshop which I participated has given me the proper tools and techniques in learning from the best of the seasoned Casting Directors in the industry.

Whether you're an aspiring or working actor you'll be glad to be a part of the workshops offered. It has absolutely been a wonderful experience. Thank you!
